PAROLE IS DEAD.

Full of years and honors one of the greatest horses the American turf has ever known, died at Tuxedo Park on New Year's day. This was the famous "horse of two hemispheres," Parole. He was a brown, by Leamington-Maiden, by Lexington, was foaled in 1873, and as horses' ages are counted was thirty years old when he died. He began racing when a two-year-old by winning the July stakes at Monmouth Park July 8, 1875. At the same meeting, July 17, he won the August Stakes. Then he was taken to Saratoga, where he ran unplaced to his stable companion, Faithless, in the Flash Stakes, but was a close up fourth, and could have won had it been necessary. August 4 he won the Saratoga Stakes, August Belmont's two grand fillies Adelaide and Sultana, running second and third. August 10 he won the Kentucky Stakes, with Adelaide a game second and Sultana third. His last race as a two-year-old was in the Central Stakes at Baltimore, in which he ran second to his stable mate Cyril, being under restraint at the finish to let Cyril win. He was a high class two-year-old, and to the end of his career on the track he was a high class race horse. He was a sprinter of amazing speed, and a cup horse and a stayer as well.

Parole was raced with great success in this country until 1878, in the fall of which year he was taken to England by his owner, P. Lorillard. He made his first start there in the spring of 1879, in the Newmarket Handicap and inflicted a stunning surprise on our British cousins by easily defeating Isonomy, the best horse in England, one of those they dub "horse of the century" over there. Then he won the City and Suburban Handicap and the Great Metropolitan Handicap at Epsom. His first defeat in England was in the Chester Cup at Chester, won by Pageant, but at the same meeting he won the Cheshire Stakes in great style, carrying high weight. He won other good races in England, and altogether created such a disturbance that the Jockey Club abolished an allowance of fourteen pounds to foreign bred horses that had been a rule prior to Parole's advent.

He was brought back to this country in 1881 and won several races before he was finally retired to spend his remaining years in comfort. He was naturally a great favorite with Mr. Lorillard by reason of his success in England as well as his splendid record on the American turf, and some ten years ago was exhibited proudly by his owner at the Morris Park course, though old and fat, and looking like anything but a City and Suburban winner, simply for his glorious achievements of a decade before.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Frederick Gebhard expects next season to take his old-time prominent place among the big operators of steeplechase stables on the metropolitan circuit, and he has laid his plans to campaign an entirely new string of jumpers. To that end he has retired his old cross-country champion, Olindo, and sold Perion, the gelding by The Sailor Prince, which bore his colors creditably in 1901, but was a failure last season. Mr. Gebhard did not mind parting with Perion, but it cost him a pang to send old Olindo into retirement. The Onoko gelding had served him so faithfully and well he hated to give him up.

Olindo was in such excellent condition at this time last year Mr. Gebhard thought he might race successfully again. He had him trained last spring, and the horse schooled beautifully. When it came to actual racing, however, the Onoko gelding could not deliver the goods. His younger and more vigorous rivals took up their weight and ran away from him. Olindo is now enjoying the rest good horses earn. He will revel in pastures to the end of his time, and never again feel the weight of a saddle nor the sting of a spur.

Mr. Gebhard does not expect to accomplish anything extraordinary in the early months of the coming season. His scheme is to look about him all spring and pick out such horses as he thinks may develop into first-class steeplechasers, and, buy them. No man is better qualified than Mr. Gebhard to pick out a horse suitable for the cross-country game. He has had a deal of experience on eastern tracks, and has met with better than an average success.

Mr. Gebhard's stable just now consists of two horses, His Eminence, the Kentucky Derby winner of 1901, and Nuit Blanche, a filly by his famous old runner St. Saviour-Scotch Mist. Nuit Blanche is closely related to William C. Whitney's ill-starred filly Endurance by Right. She was a promising filly last spring, and Mr. Gebhard expected her to win one or two stakes, but sickness and accident prevented her from making good. She is in excellent condition just now, however, and bids fair to become a first-rate three-year-old.

Tod Sloan will not return to this country this winter. W. H. Cheppeau, the bookmaker, who recently returned from Paris, has received word to the effect that Sloan had also abandoned his proposed trip to India and would remain in Paris for several months.

"I left Tod about ten days ago," said Mr. Cheppeau. "He seemed happy and prosperous. A couple of days before I left Paris he bought an Astrakhan overcoat for which he paid $600. He is a long ways from being broke. Sloan was subjected to a thirty-six hour inquisition in connection with the recent turf scandal—which really wasn't a scandal at all—and came out with flying colors, as cablegrams from the other side have indicated.

"There has been a great deal of rot published in connection with the little unpleasantness over in France. There was no occasion for the rumpus that was raised. I was one of the few Americans who escaped being called upon to tell the story of their past lives to the French police."

Friends of the turf everywhere will learn with pleasure that Mike Dwyer is improving in health. That the aforesaid king of plungers is much better is evidenced by the statement that he will start next week for his winter resort at Rock Ledge, Fla., and there endeavor to get into condition for the racing season of 1903. For some years now Mr. Dwyer has been a great sufferer from locomotor ataxia, so much so that at times his life has been despaired of. Recently, however, he has thrived immensely, and so great has been his improvement that he looks forward to next season with all the hope and enthusiasm of a newcomer on the turf. His horses at Gravesend in the care of trainer Dick Miller, are in excellent condition.

Winner—Br. f, by Tenny—Ionis (trained by E. Wright). Went to post at 2:00. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Tioga was under a drive all through the last quarter, wore Siege and Offset down in the last furlong and was going away at the end. Gloria Mundi was on the outside to the stretch turn, but saved ground at this point and hung on well under punishment. Brush By is a slow beginner and needs a longer route. She was outrun for the first half, but finished stoutly and was running past horses at the end. Siege was on the outside for the entire trip, showed scant speed and probably did not like the going. Siege tired as if short.

Scratched—34883 Paramount, 105.

Overweights—Offset, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. m, by Tremont—Myopia (trained by A. C. McCafferty). Went to post at 2:38. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Alpaca was at her best in the going, showed the most speed and McCafferty kept her on the extreme outside for the entire trip. Flora Levy and Jim King fought it out all through the last quarter and the former outgamed the latter. Jim King closed a big gap from a bad beginning. War Cry was on the inside in the deep going all the way. The Bronze Demon quit badly. Miss Shanley ran a bad race and can do better. Crutchfield showed early speed.

Scratched—36826 John Potter, 109.

Winner—Ch. g, by Faustus—Vulturo (trained by E. F. Smith). Went to post at 3:06. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. The first three fought it out closely all through the last furlong and Ben Frost outgamed the others and was going away at the end. He swerved over to the inside in the last fifty yards and carried Robert G. Lansing and Maltster with him. Robert G. Lansing was much used in chasing Insolence. Maltster tired in the last furlong and finished in the deep going. Insolence was on the extreme outside for the entire trip and lost four or five lengths by going wide at the turn into the homestretch. Lou Woods was away tangled up and made up fully twenty lengths in the last half. Breaker was interfered with a couple of times. Inspector Shea ran a bad race.

Scratched—34417 Apple Bloom, 85.

Overweights—Ben Frost, 1 pound; Kaloma, 2 1/2.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Blaise—Seaweed (trained by J. U. Strode). Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. St. Tammany was off in his stride, raced Ahumada to subjection in the first quarter and fought it out stoutly with Belvino all through the last quarter. The latter ran in improved form, but faltered after getting to the leader, then came again at the end under a hard drive. Ahumada was under a drive all through the last furlong, but was speedy in the first part of the race and under a pull. Barbara Frietchie was cut off and knocked out of it at the start.

Winner—Ch. c, by Golden Garter—Stella (trained by A. C. McCafferty).
Went to post at 4:06. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Star and Garter was ridden well and at home in the going, showed the most early speed and raced Pirate to defeat in the first half, but was forced to a hard drive in the last fifty yards to stall off Glennevis and was tiring at the end and just managed to last long enough. Glennevis came to the extreme outside at the turn into the homestretch and finished very fast. Pirate was tiring at the end. Welcome Light saved ground at the turn into the homestretch. Daddy Bender quit in the last furlong.

Fake showed the most speed throughout and made all his own pace, but had to be shaken up at the end and stall off Eliza Dillon. The latter showed improvement and was easily the best of the others. Winner—Ch. m, by Apache—Jennie K. (trained by J. J. Ellard).
Went to post at 2:05. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Rose of Hilo beat the barrier, led throughout and won going away. Torila closed a gap from an indifferent start and finished going fast. Los Angeleno, a good looker, was crowded back at the half and finished the last quarter fast and should improve greatly. Esternell tired in the final drive and still looks big and unfit. Intrepido, nearly left, made up a dozen lengths on the leaders and was eased up at the end.

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Ripper was lucky, sustained his speed gamely and finished stoutly. Andrew Ring ran very green and was ridden dilatorily, but closed up very fast when too late and was much the best. Tamm was closing up in the stretch. Indina went a fast half.

Winner—Br. h, by Goldfinch—Abilene (trained by J. Coffey).
Went to post at 3:04. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Goldone worked a rough journey to the stretch, where he came along fast and won going away. Star Cotton forced the pace to the stretch, where he fell away, but came again right at the end. Illilouon was lucky and had clear sailing, and only saved third place under Ranch's vigorous ride. Saintly was crowded at the start and was worn out in racing into the lead in the first half, and under a weak ride tired at the end. He was easily second best and shows steady improvement. Lone Fisherman disliked the going, but ran a fair race and can win on a good track. Mission failed to stay.

Went to post at 3:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Ball Room Belle got away poorly, but forced the pace throughout, stood a long stretch drive gamely and was easily the best. Quatre ran a good race and finished fast. Gus Lanka failed to stay and can do better. Salver was always outrun and handicapped by the going. Stunts showed early speed and was probably short. Scratched—(36867) The Major, 110.

Greyfeld beat the barrier, followed the pacemaker closely and came on the extreme outside into the stretch, where he swerved clear over to the inner rail, destroying the chances of several contenders. Expedient finished with a rush and was lucky to drop in second. Axminster came through on the inside in the last quarter and was forced to pull up right at the end, losing second place. Constellator forced the pace for seven furlongs, destroying his chances, and he was nearly knocked down when a furlong out by Greyfeld's swerving. Larry Wilt was outclassed.

Bernota appeared like winning in the stretch, but tired and was swerving badly at the end. Matt Hogan ran well in hand to the stretch, but failed to stay and was evidently short. Muresca was apparently beaten early and was gradually falling back after going the first quarter. Educate went a fast half and looks ready when in sloppy going. Idogo is in poor form.
